Prizes: Sashes will be awarded to 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th place getters. Trophies to Champions in each section.

Registration: Competitors are required to report to the Secretary on the arena NO LATER THAN 8:30am on the day of the event to complete their judging sheets.

Equipment: Entrants may only use Australian Stockwhips. If the judges deem a whip is not in a safe working order, the competitor will be asked to use a replacement whip. A whip at least six foot in length, from keeper to commencement of fall, must be presented for measurement prior to, and then be used by, each competitor in the accuracy component of the competition. (Not applicable to Pee Wee competitors). Any length of whip may be used in other sections of the competition. A competitor may not use a second person or animal during the competition.

Judging

Conduct: Any competitor heard swearing while competing will be disqualified immediately.

Protests: After the scores have been released at the end of each section the individual competitor has 15minutes to lodge an official protest with the event secretary or nominated person accompanied by a fee of $50. Head Judges decision is final on day.

CODE OF ETHICS:

Dress: Suitable ‘Australian—type costume’ including a hat, should be worn. Neat and tidy appearance is suggested. Sneakers, baseball caps, thongs, tee-shirts and other inappropriate clothing will not be accepted into the competition.

Whips: Whips other than Leather Australian Stockwhips will not be allowed. All whips must be safe to use and should be presented in a well-maintained condition.

Manners: Competitors should acknowledge the judges before and after their performance and at all times conduct themselves in a sporting way. Competitors in each event under progression must wait in a designated marshalling area while that competition is taking place.

Alcohol/Drugs: No competitor is to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs during the competition (competition is over after the presentation). NO Alcohol is to be taken into the Whipcracking Area.
